

By SHELBY HODGE Copyright 2008 Houston Chronicle
Oct. 1, 2008, 6:07PM

Partying on

You can't keep the Amschwand Sarcoma Cancer Foundation crowd down. Even though the nonprofit's gala was canceled because of Hurricane Ike, loyal supporters gathered at Café Annie for a somewhat impromptu fundraiser Friday night when the restaurant donated 10 percent of all proceeds from sales to the foundation.

It was a rocking party with an SRO crowd wining, dining and dancing to the sounds of a DJ in the private room. Kicking up their heels were foundation co-founder and president Melissa Amschwand Bellinger with hubby James Bellinger, co-chairs of the canceled Catwalk for a Cure gala Erin Florescu and Tim Moloney, honorary chairs Jill and Scott Holstead, Saks Fifth Avenue GM Terry Zmyslo and William Dobbs, Nick Florescu, Courtney and Bo Hopson and on and on.